Lawhon explores themes of Puritan shame culture and gender oppression, the courtroom as a theatrical spectacle, and familial loyalty in the face of suspicion. Contact: Rich Leland.

Outreach Have a Heart Food and Book Drive

Friday, February 14 - Monday, February 24 (Narthex)

Beginning Valentine's Day, February 14, Outreach will be collecting food and gently used children's books for Food for Others, our local food pantry in Merrifield.

Considering our severe winter weather and the many days children have missed school, it is especially urgent that families have sufficient food at home.

The Food Pantry lets children choose books to take home from their "library" of donated books when their family comes to pick up food. Most needed items are: peanut butter, canned tuna, cereal, rice, canned or dried beans, pasta & sauce, canned tomato products, canned fruit in fruit juice. Thank you for your generous donations of food and books for families in need in our area.

Join Us for Summer Camp Fun at Good Shepherd!

This summer, Good Shepherd will host three exciting musical theater camps for youth of all ages! From storytelling and imagination in Imagination Station for our youngest stars, to a production of "Finding Nemo Jr." for elementary and middle schoolers, and our high school two-week intensive, "Mean Girls High School Version". There's something for everyone! Each camp combines creativity, performance, and fun while fostering a love for the arts. Don't miss these incredible opportunities to learn, grow, and shine on stage!
